

2020 VISION: ENDING CHILD POVERTY FOR GOOD

BOOK SUMMARY:

This book looks at what has been achieved since the pledge to end child poverty by 2020 was made, as well as considering what went wrong and the lessons that can be learned from both the highs and the lows of the past twenty years. It examines how the challenge of ending child poverty has changed over this period, and outlines a new ambitious plan to end child poverty for good.

In 2012, CPAG published a collection of essays titled 'Ending child poverty by 2020 - progress made and lessons learned'. This book completes the story to the end of the decade, bringing together a range of expert contributions from fields including health, education, housing, early years, social security, race, taxation and the lived experience of low income

“
I was so hungry and that, so... all of a sudden... it was like... it was like I got hit on my belly... it was like I got stabbed with a knife and it's still there.

Emmanuel, age 14

2020 VISION

ENDING CHILD POVERTY FOR GOOD

REBECCA O'CONNELL
AND JULIA BRANNEN
FOREWORD BY LOUISE TICKLE

SPECIFICATIONS

ISBN:

978-1-910715-71-0

Title:

2020 Vision: Ending Child Poverty for Good

Authors:

Multiple

Publisher:

Child Poverty Action Group

Price:

£15.00

Publication date:

April 2020

Distribution:

Partridges

Contact:

bookorders@cpag.org.uk