ABC TO A REGGAE BEAT!

About the Work

B is for Breadfruit is a charming, colourful, vibrant set of alphabet flashcards that bring more than a fun way to learn the ABCs. Along with the alphabet, budding readers are introduced to Jamaica's rich, diverse culture. From vibrant ferns and humming birds, manatees and pirates and even the thirst quenching rainbow coloured 'sky juice', B is for Breadfruit brings the flora, fauna as well as indigenous and popular culture of Jamaica. These wonderful, large-print alphabet cards are beautifully illustrated, easy to read, and perfect for tiny hands.

About the Illustrator

Staysean Daley is a visual communicator at her very core. She was born in Venezuela to Jamaican parents. An illustrator and designer, Staysean was raised in Jamaica with an infusion of arts and culture the love of which permeates every fibre of her being. Staysean's formal training in Visual Arts began at the Edna Manley College of the Visual Arts in Kingston, Jamaica and was completed at the Miami International University of Art and Design with a BFA in Graphic Design. With several years in advertising under her belt, she is the founder and CEO of Kraas Images producers of authentic Caribbean stock photography.
